MORGAN ISSUES AN EXPLANATION

Declares There Must Be Law Enforcement and Armed Resistance Be Overcome

CAUSE OF BLOODSHED

The Attempt to Serve Warrants on Offenders Who Attacked State Policemen

Charlestown, W. Va., Sept. 2.—Federal troops are in West Virginia, ready to put down the disorder that has been disturbing the peace of the state since last week. The first troops arrived at St. Albans from Ohio and was followed by other trains bringing infantry, men and equipment, from the Sixth corps area of the middle west. Troops from Camp Dix, who left New Jersey early today are not due until tomorrow morning.

Brigadier General H. H. Bandholtz, in command of all the troops ordered here, would not divulge the exact spot where men are to be stationed, exercising the usual military precautions of not announcing plans until they have been carried out. The infantry men will be stationed at about a half dozen central points, from which they will operate in smaller detachments to all surrounding places where they may be needed. General Bandholtz had no very disturbing reports today from the so-called front along the boundary line of Boone and Logan counties where the armed miners and others are facing the largely recruited county and state peace officers and men. The armed bands are on the Boone county side of the line and in a strip of Logan county, east of Spruce Fork ridge, while the opposing state and county forces are on the Logan side.

General Bandholtz gave out no statement on the situation, but expected that when the military arrived on the scene the invaders will quickly disperse and return to their homes in several of the counties in southwestern West Virginia. This is also the opinion of state authorities and responsible members of the United Mine workers.

Charlestown, W. Va., Sept. 2.—Governor Morgan today issued the following statement to the press on the situation in the war department by Brigadier General Bandholtz to the effect that it was believed the withdrawal of miners last week would have been a prelude for the ill-considered and ill-timed advance movement of state constabulary on the night of August 27, resulting in bloodshed.

"The removal of state police that went to the front on the night of August 27, by the Captain Flannery, of the public safety department, did not enable the state to attack the insurgents. It was to serve warrants on approximately forty individuals, who were to be arrested with state police officers and soldiers of their company several days prior to that date.

"For three days these armed men had followed the road and committed offenses against the peace and dignity of the state. They had refused to disperse when requested by the federal troops and when Captain Brock, his force, was attacked by these armed men. When fired upon, his force returned the fire.

"As a result of the state, I have indicated that these warrants must be served and have so advised the leaders of the United Mine Workers. It is the duty of the state to enforce the law and to prevent the commission of crimes from making an attempt to perform their duties. There must be enforcement of the law and armed resistance must be overcome, even in the presence of federal troops is required to overcome those who are defiant."

With federal troops in the state and every prospect of order being restored, citizens generally are expressing what effect martial law will have upon business and citizens generally in the counties affected by the federal government issues such a

Declares Existing Warfare a Protest Against Conditions

(By The Associated Press.)

Charlestown, Sept. 2.—Philip Murray, international vice president of the United Mine Workers of America, today gave out the following formal statement on the West Virginia situation as representing the views of the mine workers:

"After making a survey of the entire situation in the disturbed section of West Virginia, I am forced to conclude that there is but one solution to the whole question as it affects the citizenry of the state of West Virginia and that is complete abolition of the mine guard and Baldwin-Felts system, now in general use throughout the non-union coal mining fields of this state.

"Despite any statement that might be made to the citizenry by the governor of the state of West Virginia, evidences of the brutality of the mine guards and Baldwin-Felts agency can be found in the non-union territory of West Virginia. My personal judgment is that the presence of federal troops in the disturbed section of the state will result in immediate quiet being restored. The men engaged in the present conflict against the governor's misuse of power welcome with open arms the coming of federal troops. They believe that their presence in this field will at least assure them, their wives and families protection from assassination at the hands of these armed bands of desperadoes.

"It is not generally understood, but it is nevertheless true, that on August 26, the citizens engaged in the present uprising against the Baldwin-Felts and mine guards entered into an agreement with General Bandholtz and President Keeney to disperse peacefully and return to their homes, with the distinct understanding that their lives would be protected while carrying out the terms of the agreement.

"The miners in good faith did disperse and did return to their homes, but not quite 24 hours after they had returned to their homes an armed band of men, consisting of members of the state constabulary and deputies from Logan county, crept into the town of Shartles in the dead of night, when the men, women and children of the community were in their beds, and when those armed thugs had completed their night's work, they had killed two members of the United Mine Workers of America, and injured another two. They stealthily crept back to where they came from, and despite the fact that the responsibility for the commission of this most reprehensible crime was charged directly to the state, yet up until today, so far as I know, the governor of the state of West Virginia has not even interested himself in this most deliberate killing, which it is alleged numbers of his own state constabulary committed on Aug. 27.

"The feelings of the citizenry of the entire state of West Virginia were completely outraged as a result of the crime, which was committed in Sharpley and resulted in a complete remobilization of not only the forces which had returned to their homes under the terms of the original agreement made with General Bandholtz and President Keeney, but in addition to that force there came up the valley of Lena creek, Little and Big Coal creek, hundreds of citizens from practically every county in the state to join with the citizens of Sharpley, Blair and all the other mining towns in the neighborhood, in a fight for the abolition of this most terrible system which is permitted to be practiced by the state authorities.

"The general impression that has been created by the governor is that the movement of this armed band of men is confined to members of the United Mine Workers of America. Nothing could be further from the truth. As a matter of fact, from my own personal observation of the situation, I discovered that the men who are on the firing line, fighting for the abolition of the guard and Baldwin-Felts system, consist of miners, railroad men, merchants, doctors, ministers of the gospel, and almost every element of the citizenship of those communities and throughout the state is represented in the forces that are fighting for the establishment of true law and order in the state.

"The slogan of the men on the firing line is, as they gave it to me: 'We fought for America in France. We returned home to find that we in West Virginia are not really and truly in America. We have made no money and no West Virginia for the purpose of 'turning the state to our country.' Everywhere you go along the fighting line, all that one will hear is: 'Let us win West Virginia back to America.'

"Additional charges have been made by certain agencies throughout the country that the marchers have looted stores for food and supplies, and that in addition they have committed various other depredations. As a matter of fact I talked to practically all the merchants between the towns of Marmet and Sharpley and each and every one of them are willing to testify that they have not been molested in the slightest degree by any of the marchers who went through their towns, but to the contrary business men state the marchers came into their stores to get their food, clothing, and shoes, and pay for them as they get them.

"The responsibility for the present bad state of affairs in West Virginia, must of necessity rest on the governor of this state. He has been calling for recruits for the past number of weeks to assist him in suppressing this alleged lawlessness, but to date, despite all of his pleas, he has not been able to muster a sufficient number of citizens of this state to make up a corporal's guard to go out and defend his policies.

"Federal troops are now on their way into the state. The citizens of the great state of West Virginia, who are on the fighting front today defending their liberty against the onslaught of men who are seeking to take them away from them, will undoubtedly respect the federal troops and the mandate of our federal government. Their coming will bring about a peace in the disturbed area and that peace will continue to be here so long as federal jurisdiction over the affected section remains in effect.

"But what is going to be done about the sources of all this evil? Why is there authority within the confines of this great commonwealth willing to stand up like a great big broad minded American citizen and seek to eradicate for all time the sources of these great industrial conflicts?

"Let us hope when this situation passes over and federal jurisdiction has been removed from West Virginia that Governor Morgan will meet this situation by saying to the Felts agency and the non-union coal operators of this state: 'You must keep your Baldwin-Felts spies, gunmen and notorious guard out of the state.'

"Such an ultimatum sent by him upon these people will have a far reaching effect in restoring that measure of industrial tranquility which the United Mine Workers of America believe the citizens of West Virginia are entitled to receive."

proclamation. Hope was expressed in some quarters that if the presence of federal troops will clear up the disorderly situation, that the government will not find it necessary to place the disturbed area under martial law.

Gov. Morgan's office gave out unofficial reports today of continued shooting in the mountains to the south. There were, however, no details as to the extent of casualties on either side.

There is no definite official information in Charlestown as far as can be learned as to the number of persons killed in the troubled area. Many reports received here have proved exaggerated, due in many cases to the excitement in the affected areas. One report today stated armed men had captured a train of eight cars, loaded with men and sent it to the front. Another report said 200 men were induced to leave their work in the mines in Raleigh county and to join the armed band on the Boone-Logan line.

Observers in army air planes made an observation flight this afternoon to the south and returned late in the afternoon. They flew over Charlestown and attracted much attention.

Bombing Plane Wrecked.

Fairmont, W. Va., Sept. 2.—A large bombing plane in charge of Lt. Lewis Arnold and containing two army officers as passengers, bound for the trouble zone in southern West Virginia was wrecked three miles north of Fairmont tonight. None of the occupants was injured.

TWO TENNIS MATCHES WON BY AMERICANS

Prospects of Retaining Davis Cup Brighten When Japanese Challengers Lose

Forest Hills, Sept. 2.—The possibility that the Davis cup, emblematic of the world tennis championship, might travel to Japan this fall received a decided set back on the courts of the West Side club this afternoon when the American defending players won two straight matches from their Japanese challengers.

William M. Johnston of San Francisco, National champion in 1915 and 1919, defeated Ichiji Kumagae in straight sets of singles by scores of 6-2, 6-4, 6-2. William T. Tilden, 2nd, of Philadelphia, present American title holder, had a far more difficult task in subduing Zensho Shimidzu in a five set battle by scores of 5-7, 4-6, 7-5, 6-2, 6-1.

Tomorrow Watson M. Washburn of New York and R. Morris Williams of Boston, the American doubles team, will play the same Japanese players in the third match of the challenge round. A victory for the American pair would mean the retention of the cup, won in New Zealand last winter, as three victories out of five matches are required under the rules.

TWO MURDERERS PAY PENALTY FOR CRIMES

Ossining, Sept. 2.—Harry Van Reed and Angelo Giordano, convicted murderers, were put to death in the electric chair at Sing Sing prison last night. Both were from New York city.

Edward J. McNally, who also was to be executed Thursday, was granted a reprieve by the governor two hours before the time set for his death. His reprieve was based on a court order issued to show cause why he should not be given a new trial and stay his execution until Sept. 12. The court order was made returnable Sept. 6.

Van Reed shot and killed Max Rabenowitz, a Manhattan tailor, last year during an attempt to hold up his shop. Giordano was found guilty of instigating the murder of Giuseppe Varsano in 1917, an outgrowth of a gambling quarrel. Thursday he attempted suicide in his cell by slashing his wrist with a bit of tin and hung himself to an iron pipe by a twisted sheet.

McNally was convicted of complicity in the robbery and murder of Walter Jaskowski, a Staten Island restaurant manager.

WAGES OF FARM LABOR LOW COMPARED WITH TRAIN CREWS

Washington, Sept. 2.—A testimony before the Interstate Commerce commission in the hearing of freight rates on grain and hay was completed yesterday with the appearance of Clyde M. Reed, chairman of the Kansas Public Utilities commission, who asserted that railroads were concealing their earnings. Various funds, he charged, were being set up by the carriers of the west into which were placed cash taken from their present earnings, while the carriers were complaining that they were not earning a fair return on their investment.

Commissioner Potter had placed in the records an exhibit prepared by statisticians of the commission showing the comparative wages received by farm labor, which the exhibit showed to average 15 cents an hour, while those of the railroad employees were shown to be 55.5 cents.

ROOT DECLINES POSITION IN INTERNATIONAL COURT

New York, Sept. 2.—Elihu Root has declined a nomination as a member of the international court of justice under the League of Nations because of his advanced age.

The Italian consulate here announced today that Mr. Root had made his refusal known in a letter to President Tittoni of the Italian senate, as chairman of the Italian nomination. Mr. Root has also been proposed by France, Brazil, Bolivia, Venezuela and Uruguay.

On receiving Mr. Root's declination the Italian nominators proposed John Bassett Moore.

Members of the court will be chosen this month by the assembly and the council of the League of Nations, meeting at Geneva, from candidates proposed by various countries.

BADE POLES ANOTHER.

New York, Sept. 2.—Babe Ruth today poked out his 19th home run of the season in the game with Washington. It came in the seventh inning with one man on base. Erickson was pitching. Ruth is 11 days ahead of his 1920 program, when he made his 49th homer on Sept. 13 off Ehman of Detroit. With 39 games to be played, he has to make six home runs to surpass his record mark of 54.

LIEUT. GARVEY MUST ANSWER.

Washington, Sept. 2.—Lieut. P. T. Garvey, naval reserve force, of New York city, who commanded the air boat from which a machine gun bullet fired in practice on August 8, injured Miss Grace Buxton at Narragansett bay, has been ordered before a federal court martial on charges of neglect of duty in failing to take necessary precautions. The naval board on investigations reported that the shot was accidental.

METHODISTS TO REFORM DANCE.

Chicago, Sept. 2.—Dancing masters having failed in their efforts to design a dance which would meet with the approval of the Methodist church and cause it to lift its ban on dancing, Dr. C. H. McCrea, assistant editor of the Northwestern Christian Advocate, a church publication, suggested yesterday that Methodists now undertake to reform the dance. He proposed in an editorial some form of "mutual athletics" that will save all that is harmless and provide all that is lacking in the social life of the young people of both sexes.

COL. HASKELL SAILS TO FEED RUSSIANS

His Task to Feed 1,000,000 Children One Meal a Day—Task Financed

New York, Sept. 2.—Col. William H. Haskell, recently appointed chief of the American relief administration in Russia, sails tomorrow on the Olympic to supervise the problem of feeding 1,000,000 Russian children one meal a day and as many other famine-stricken sufferers as possible. He will meet in London, Walter Lyman Brown, director for Europe, and will proceed with him to Moscow, where headquarters will be established. He will be accompanied by an executive staff of 14.

Work of organization is already well under way. Col. Haskell and tonight, and quantities of supplies have been forwarded into Russia from Danzig and other foreign bases.

The mission is financed, Col. Haskell said, and there will be no drive for land-top work now in sight. Full cooperation has been obtained from all American relief organizations for this work.

"Secretary Hoover, in his final instructions to me," he added, "said that the service which we are able to perform must be in the true spirit of charity. There must be no discrimination as to politics, race or creed. Charity can take no interests in international politics, and any individual who does not so conduct this work should be immediately withdrawn upon my initiative."

"I wholeheartedly subscribe to these instructions. I have a staff trained for and experienced in just such work and devoid of political or religious bias. We have jointly accepted the responsibility of delivering one meal every day to 1,000,000 children who otherwise might die, or perhaps worse, might be made into deformed, backward, untalented men and women."

THREE MUSKETEERS KEEP NOVEL WAR PACT

Winnipeg, Man., Sept. 2.—Three modern musketeers Thursday kept a pact made on Vimy ridge on Christmas eve of 1915.

That night, in a little hut back of the front line, an artillery man, a bombardier and a signaller inscribed on the back of a photograph of one's father the following pledge:

"We solemnly promise on our word of honor to meet at Winnipeg on Sept. 1, 1921, if alive, to renew acquaintance."

A few days later the comrades in arms—J. L. Yumans of Belleville, Ont., J. J. Crilly, of Saskatoon, and G. H. Seely, of British Columbia, were separated. In the next few weeks all were wounded and Yumans spent fourteen months in a German prison camp. Seely a letter did the comrades exchange since the war ended, but Crilly and Seely Thursday they all showed up at Winnipeg to attend a baseball game and theatre party and to dine at the expense of Crilly. For Crilly had agreed to foot the bill if the war did not end within a year.

POWER OF GOVERNMENT TO CONTROL AERONAUTICS

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 2.—Conflicting views on the power of the national government to control aeronautics caused bitter debate before the convention of the American War Association held today when the report of the committee on the law of aviation was received, and finally adopted after numerous substitute resolutions had failed.

The report advocated that the war association give attention to "the fundamental problems of jurisprudence without venturing into the field of practical aviation and left the question of legislation open to congress. Legal questions involved in air legislation must be first decided before the details of control were settled, the committee stated.

LANDS TOO RUSY TO REPLY.

Chicago, Sept. 2.—Judge Kanevsky M. Zandke announced when he reached his office today that he was too busy on other matters to answer a long statement in reply to the resolution adopted by the American bar association at Cincinnati yesterday, in which he was criticized for holding a federal office and his position as a ball commissioner at the same time. Judge Zandke was expected to hand down the decision today in the Carnegie building, which was attributed to him by his bar association, his spare time for the last two months.

SEEKS ANOTHER CONFERENCE

(By The Associated Press.)

Geneva, Switzerland, Sept. 2.—Leon Jouhaux, president of the French Federation of Labor, called for a new session of the League of Nations, presented a resolution for a new international conference on disarmament, at which all countries and all classes, including labor, would be represented. He urged the League to insist on the League of Nations to be extended to include labor.

MAKES NEW WORLD RECORD.

Rochester, Sept. 2.—Rochester, N. Y., set a new world record in a 100-yard race today, when it was won by a team of four men in 12.25 seconds, beating the old record of 12.5 seconds, set by the same team in 1919.

ELMST BAR CHIEFS.

Cincinnati, Sept. 2.—The bar of St. Paul, Minn., was elected president of the American bar association today. President Daniel S. Bailey, of Albany, and A. Thomas, of Little Rock, were elected treasurer and secretary, respectively.

GOVERNMENT FIRM WILL STOP DISORDER

Secretary Weeks Declares That If Armed Bands Resist Authority It Becomes Insurrection

Washington, Sept. 2.—The war department set in motion today machinery to apply irresistible force to the disorderly element in the five mining counties of West Virginia, where lawless disorders have smoldered into what officials term insurrections. By troops from four army camps, expeditionary troops, who number 2,100 men, were routed for separate detachments on the edge of the mountain country. Brigadier General Bandholtz, the government's agent on the scene, has been designated to command the troops.

Behind the force in motion, Secretary Weeks said, were as reserves another 2,000 men, and bombing airplanes, which have already arrived in the disturbed area. President Harding's proclamation formally putting Fayette, Mingo, Logan, Kanawha and Boone counties under martial law is in the hands of General Bandholtz and will be issued at the discretion of Secretary Weeks.

The government's action in sending troops into West Virginia, Secretary Weeks said today, evidently has the approval of mine union officials, as well as the civil authorities of West Virginia, who had asked for them. He called attention to General Bandholtz's report earlier in the day that Philip Murray, international vice president of the United Mine Workers, had joined in urging upon him the recommendations for troops.

"When railroads are closed up and armed bands of men establish themselves in the country, marching to and fro, overpowering resistance," the secretary said, "you may call it what you please; we call it insurrection."

The 19th Infantry from Camp Sherman and Columbus, Ohio, and the 26th from Camp Dix, N. J., which were the first to move for the scene of the disorder, are provided with machine guns, howitzers, radio and headquarters machinery, one pounders, specialists in gas warfare, as well as rifles, riot guns, automatic rifles and revolvers. The enlisted ranks of the two organizations, according to latest reports, are 2,100, exclusive of the personnel of the 88th Light Bombing Squadron, estimated at 150 men.

Officers of the war department familiar with martial law precedents and the policies of the administration, said the extent and duration of its existence in West Virginia, would depend largely upon the discretion of General Bandholtz.

Its primary object, it was explained, is the quelling of disturbances and the reinstatement of proper and constituted civil authorities in the disturbed area.

Consequently it is expected that military forces will cooperate with state police and local police officers, that no military court will be set up for trial and punishment of captured offenders of the peace, and that local lawlessness and industry will be encouraged to continue. Exceptions to this general policy, it was said, would only be occasioned by prolonged and violent disorders, which could be stamped out by military operations. If this should happen, it might be necessary to remove even peaceable residents from territory where troop movement and encounters with armed forces were probable.

Even should prisoners be taken in large numbers by the military organizations it was said, they probably would only be detained until the civil authorities were capable of taking them over for punishment or further detention, under the civil laws.

Lord Urges Conference.

President Harding should summon operators and miners in West Virginia to a conference as the best means of restoring order, James Lord, president of the mining department of the American Federation of labor, said today.

"I am convinced," he added, "that if President Harding would request the mine owners and miners to confer, the parties so invited would consider the summons equal to an order and would come together."

"Once a conference was opened, it could not be closed without progress toward agreement or without abandonment of some of the most grievous evils that have driven men desperate in Mingo."

"The mine operators of Mingo today are in the position of defying a government. The law of the United States and the United States Coal Commission award of 1920 and that refusal is the cause of the strike out of which the present deplorable situation grew."

"The government has a duty to protect in view of the attitude of the operators toward the federal award."

"An impartial investigation by the government is timely. The situation is one of common concern to the whole country. The matter can be modified in the future but it can never be brought into true cooperation and good citizenship as a harmonious part of the state and country until justice is done on the basis of finding of fact."

"President Harding has an opportunity to perform a constructive, lawful and just service by bringing together the opposing forces in West Virginia."

PRESIDENT AND MRS. HARDING ATTEND MEMORIAL SERVICES

Washington, Sept. 2.—The President and Mrs. Harding attended memorial services for the late King Peter of Serbia in the little chapel of Washington Cathedral today. Gen. Hughes and members of the diplomatic corps also were present, the attendance being confined exclusively to representatives of the embassies and legations here.

The president and his party stood during the brief services, conducted by the Rev. Thomas Danilew, pastor of the Greek church of St. Helena, and St. Constantine as there is no priest of the Serbian national church here.

COLLINS A REBEL SAY ORANGEMEN

His Visit to Armagh, Where He Is Announced to Speak Attracts Attention

Dublin, Sept. 2.—The visit of Michael Collins, Sinn Féin minister of commerce and commander in chief of the Irish republican army is attracting great attention here. It has been announced that Mr. Collins proposes to address a meeting at Armagh Sunday. Armagh is in the district in which the Orange association was organized, and Orangemen are declared to regard the visit there of Mr. Collins as an invasion of their territory by a "rebel." Mr. Collins was elected to the northern parliament from Armagh.

Armstrong is a city which observes Sunday strictly as it is observed in Scotland, where political meetings are barred. Sunday's meeting is to be preceded by a procession, and the hope was expressed here today that the leaders in the movement would confine it to the Nationalist quarter of the city. Mr. Collins was elected one of the four members of the northern parliament from the Armagh constituency mainly by the votes in the southern district of the county.

In some quarters here the belief is expressed that the visit of Mr. Collins to Armagh likely will lead to visits by Sinn Féin members of the northern parliament to their district in Ulster. Londonderry City, Fermanagh, Tyrone and Down each have Sinn Féin members of the parliament.

May Consider Favorably.

Sinn Féin Ireland today awaited publication of the text of the note sent to Premier Lloyd George yesterday by Eamon DeValera and his colleagues in the Irish Republican government. Mr. Lloyd George is spending a brief vacation at Garlloch, Scotland, and it was announced that nothing relative to the Sinn Féin reply question would be given out here until it was known that it was in Lloyd George's hands.

It was believed, however, that the Sinn Féin leaders did not discuss with the prime minister any of the points of his latest note with the exception of the final clause, in which further negotiations were suggested. Men high in the councils of the Republican movement evidently desired to develop further the conditions upon which dominion status would be granted Ireland, and there appears to be a disposition to consider favorably some features of the prime minister's terms.

Fresh Shooting Occurs.

(By The Associated Press.)

Belfast, Sept. 2.—Fresh shooting occurred this afternoon in the Falls division of the city, but the outbreak was not serious. Townsend, Coates and Melbourne streets were the scenes of the disturbances.

"TEX" RICKARD INDICTED BY CHICAGO GRAND JURY

Chicago, Sept. 2.—"Tex" Rickard, promoter of the Dempsey-Carpentier championship boxing bout, was indicted by the federal grand jury today on charges of "transporting moving pictures of the match in violation of the federal law. Rickard was arrested recently when he brought the films from New York to Chicago, and was released on bonds.

Rickard brought the films to Chicago with the expressed purpose of making a test case, it is asserted. In a similar instance in New York he was arrested, indicted and, after pleading guilty, was fined $1,000. Then, contending he could not be rearrested and tried again for the same offense, he had his films shown in numerous New York theatres.

"If Rickard attempts to show the films in Chicago for profit, I'll have him locked up at once," said Charles F. Clyde, district attorney. "I'll have him rearrested every time he tries it."

DISCUSS RATES ON GRAIN.

Washington, Sept. 2.—Attorneys for the railroads and for the shippers gave oral arguments before the interstate commerce commission today at hearings of the proposed reductions of freight rates on grain and hay. The former argued that a reduction would throw many western roads into bankruptcy. Attorneys for the shippers declared that production would be lessened and the roads would suffer from reduced profits if the present rates were continued.

CARPENTERS GET AN INCREASE.

Newark, N. J., Sept. 2.—Union carpenters of Newark, Bloomfield, Montclair and East, South and West Orange, today were granted an increase in wages of $1 a day by Police Judge Frank R. Bodner, arbitrator in the wage dispute. The new scale, which increases wages from $8 to $9 a day, is effective until April 1, 1922.

STAMFORD BLANKS ONEONTA

Visitors Get After Zwick in the Second for Four Runs—Giants Unable to Do Much with Mason Who Was Given Five Support—Series Stands, Oneonta 7 Stamford 5.

Stamford won the last of the series of 12 games with Walsh's Giants at Neahwa park yesterday afternoon, administering a shut-out. The series stands Oneonta 7, Stamford 5. "The Stamfordites will find consolation in the fact that they took the first game and gave the Oneonta bunch a whitewash in the last of the series. The visitors deserved to win, as they played errorless ball and Mason, who was on the mound for them, twirled effectively with men on the bases. Oneonta made as many hits as did they but he kept them well scattered. Oneonta opened both the fifth and sixth with two singles, but the needed hit to send over the one run which would have saved the whitewash was not forthcoming. While the visitors played the better game and won on its merits, even the most ardent supporters of the mountain team will concede that they had all of the luck of the game from the time Umpire Beane announced the "batteries for today's game" until the double play in the ninth shut off whatever of hopes the local fans had of winning the game.

Zwick, who started the game for the Giants did well in the first, retiring the first three men. In the second he lost his effectiveness, however, and after one was down, Bush, Harris, Connelly and Mason hit safely. In turn, Connelly making a double and sending in three men ahead of him.

Zwick was evidently in poor form and at this point Walsh summoned Harlow in from right field to relieve him and Scanlon went into right in place of Harlow. The latter passed Camp, who however was thrown out at second on Cashman's grounder by Baird. Bateman sent a fly to Scanlon, who pitched it, and the disastrous inning was over.

The visitors were unable to do more with Harlow's offerings after that than five singles, two of them coming together in the seventh in which Camp, after hitting safely, was sacrificed to second by Cashman and gained third when Bateman was retired, Farrell to Byrnes. He came home when Jacobs hit a safety to right. The visitors had no other chances during the remainder of the game. Harlow pitched five ball and had the locals done anything with Mason with men on bases the story might be different.

For four innings the locals got three scattered singles off Mason, but in the fifth McGrath and Harlow both singled opening the inning. After Baird had fled out to right, Steffen drove one into left, which looked good but Butler grabbed it and doubled McGrath at second. Again in the sixth, Hatch and Herman both singled, they being the first two up. Byrnes fouled and Farrell's hard drive was caught by Bateman and Kopf captured Harlow's grounder and stepped on second forcing Hermann for the third out.

In the eighth, after Steffen had gained free passage, Hatch drove a hot one toward the pitcher and Mason thrust up his gloved hand and pulled the pill down, doubling Steffen at second on a hit-and-run play. Hermann was given a life when his high fly was permitted to drop between Butler and Kopf. The latter, who also had found it like taking candy from a child. Byrnes, however, fled out to Bateman in center who felled like a bend.

The third double play of the game was pulled in the ninth by Stamford. Farrell made a hit but was thrown out at second on Walsh's pinch hitting for Harlow, grounded to short, Walsh being safe at first. McGrath hit to short who tossed the ball to Cashman at second, catching Walsh. Cashman fired it to first for the third out.

While not minimizing the good work of Stamford and of Mason in the box, the luck of the game, which is always quite a factor in any game was throughout with Stamford. Innings this season wherein Oneonta has not two men on with one out and yet failed to score have been rare indeed.

Today the famous Generals of Albany will be out with a special train load of rooters to get satisfaction for the 15 inning victory won on Oneonta when they were last here. There will doubtless be a record crowd. The figures of yesterday's battle follow:

ANOTHER MIRACLE.

Broken Truck Causes 15 Freight Cars to Be Derailed.

While at a distance of about 300 or 350 feet south of the Afton station Thursday morning at 6:45, extra 815 which lost Binghamton at 4 a. m., was derailed by a broken truck on one of freight cars, causing 14 others to leave the track.

The train had 51 cars and those that left the track fell in such a position as to block both the north and south bound main tracks. Fortunately the accident occurred at a point where there was a side track which the other trains could be sent over, causing very slight delay in the time of the arrival in other points.

No one was injured, which was a miracle and adds another accident to the list of the Delaware and Hudson company without anyone being killed. The passenger train that leaves Binghamton at 7:35 and is due in Oneonta at 9:50 was only 45 minutes late, showing the wonderful way the trains were handled.

The conductor was J. P. Cleary and the engineer was Nathan Green. The wreckage was all cleared up at 5:30 Thursday afternoon. Wrecking crews from Oneonta and Carbondale responded to the call and did very efficient work.

State Coal Dealers' Convention.

The annual convention of the New York State Coal Merchants' association will be held at Bloomfield's in Richmond Springs Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week. The convention will be preceded by a secretaries' conference on Wednesday and on Friday afternoon, all the visitors will be entertained at Canadago park. Saturday afternoon there will be sporting events in the Spring House park, and in the evening a street carnival with dancing in front of the hotel. Among the speakers will be Editor George E. Dunham of the Utica Press on Thursday evening, and United States Senator Ashurst of Arizona after dinner Friday evening. It is expected that there will be a large attendance from all parts of the state. Bloomfield's, which closes to the public early in the week, will be kept open for the convention.

Here's a prescription that did the work for me

When a friend offers you a prescription that "worked" fine for him—don't take it. That is, be nice about it in refusing. You don't want to hurt his feelings.

But here's the point: If that prescription worked fine—FOR HIM—it means that the doctor found out what the trouble was and knew just what would help nature to get started again.

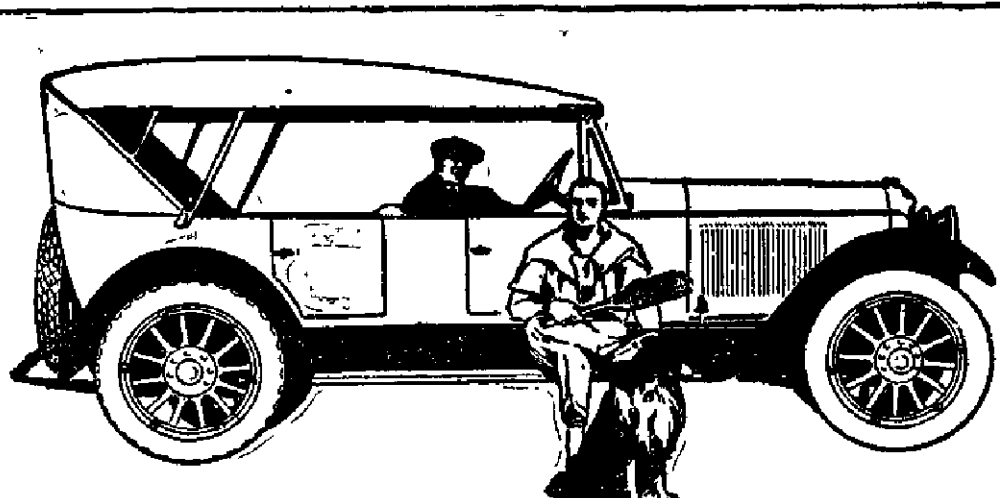

In your case, the proportions might have to be changed a lot—even something entirely different—to help you any.

Don't ask a friend. Ask a doctor.

Our part is to see that you get exactly what he orders for you.

PAIGE
The Most Beautiful Car in America

All That Money Can Buy

To be Master of the Highway is glory indeed, but this well-earned distinction does not alone explain the country-wide preference shown for Paige 6-66 models.

To start with, there is large economy in the initial price. Furthermore, many attested performances on track and hill have revealed a stamina that is a guarantee of long life and freedom from repair bills.

All that a truly fine car should be, it is easily apparent that the Paige 6-66 is by far the greatest dollar-for-dollar value on the market today. Is it any wonder, then, that discriminating buyers who could well afford to pay $5,000 to $6,000, if they were convinced that supreme quality compelled it, choose the Paige?

LOCAL EDITORIAL COMMENT.
The Duty of the Pedestrian.

Appropos of recent remarks in this column relative to care or lack of it on the part of drivers of automobiles, the suggestion is made by one who is not particularly an enthusiast in motor-traffic that the obligation after all is not entirely one sided. There is every reason why the driver of a car should watch out carefully in order to avoid injuring the unwary pedestrian, or of collision with another car, or that he may not violate the explicit provisions of the general highway and motor vehicle laws. But on the other hand there is reason why such care as the driver is expected to exercise should be taken also by one foot. The laws of the state are not one sided. No class is presumed to be favored at the expense of another, and as the driver of a car or horse-drawn vehicle is required to do certain things, as the pedestrian is expected to exercise a certain definite care.

As to Crossing City Streets.
One thing not infrequently noted is that persons in crossing streets for the purpose of saving a little distance and time cut across diagonally. This is a dangerous method as keeping on longest in what is the danger zone at any time; it prevents the pedestrian from looking in both directions; it adds to the uncertainty of the driver as to what the intention of the pedestrian is. The proper thing is, at a street corner, to be assured that there is plenty of time to cross the street before overtaken by a car going in either direction, and then to proceed straight across and as expeditiously as possible, always with an eye out as to the possibility of an accident. The right angle is the proper course to take.

Stop, Look and Listen!
The above injunction is prominently posted at crossings of American railways and highways. It is as applicable at street crossings wherever they are. The individual has certain rights over the driver of a vehicle, though the rights are obviously not all his, but none the less he will not unwittingly risk life or limb in a possible accident. The three things in the injunction he should do. He should first stop, since if he does not it is hardly possible to give the needed attention. Then he should look both ways, and gauge the conditions and after starting he should listen attentively for every horn which may warn of an approaching car. If he is in short, exercise proper diligence.

The Danger of Thoughtlessness.
Also, there are many accidents, not infrequently fatal, which are the result of thoughtlessness on the part of those who ordinarily consider themselves thoughtful. "Mindful in general of the fact that many drivers of cars appear to deliberately ignore the law which prohibits a vehicle to pass in either direction when a trolley is receiving or discharging passengers," a frequent rider said yesterday. "I try always to look before alighting, but only this week I stopped for a word with a passenger on leaving the car and by scarcely more than a foot I escaped being struck by an auto speeding along with no regard for law or limit of life. And several months ago, though I always aim to look with care before crossing Main street in front of The Oneonta, I had been talking on business matters with another man and at the close of the talk, with my mind still on the conversation, started across and was at the center of the track with autos passing in both directions before I recalled that I had not looked either way."

This is a very evident danger, and it is not difficult to recall many instances of tragedies where men ordinarily thoughtful have for the one fatal occasion forgot their usual care. To enjoin to thoughtfulness may not be a successful admonition, still it is worth while to suggest that thoughtlessness should not be permitted to become a mental habit.

Still the Chauffeur Must be Wary.
However, after all these things have been said, it should be added that none of these considerations of the pedestrian absolves the driver of a car from the exercise of the utmost caution. Those on the street are often children and old men and women, and neither their feet nor their mental processes move so swiftly as those of the man in the car. It is a legal as well as a moral duty to be wary in driving, to watch for individuals crossing the streets as well as for other cars which may collide with one's own, to go slowly, keeping within the limits of the law and in general to exercise that caution which others would be expected to exercise were the positions reversed. This matter of cutting close corners, of seeing how close one can drive in safety to the person afoot, of speeding up in prohibited sections and of disregarding the rules on the sidewalk or just off of it is one which cannot be too severely condemned.

Oneonta Part-Time School.
The sessions of the part-time school for pupils between the age of 11 and 17 years and who on account of employment are unable to attend the daily sessions of the public schools, will open at 9 a. m. Saturday morning of next week Sept. 10 in the High school building. Prof. Lawler will be principal and instructor in general English subjects. The other teachers are: Prof. Engler, manual training; Miss Helen Davis, cooking; Miss Anna Kraft, sewing; Miss Florence Weld, commercial subjects. In addition to the Saturday schools there will probably be night sessions during the week, the dates of which have not yet been determined.

NEWSPAPERS EAST AND WEST

A Year of Woman Suffrage.
Women who are celebrating the first anniversary of their accession to political equality have no cause for discouragement at the progress they have made in the use of the suffrage. One year is a very short time in political history, but even in that period the American women have made their influence felt to a notable extent.
The extent to which the women have used the ballot is a final justification of the extension of the suffrage. — (New York Sun.)

The American Response.
The country's response to the signing of the German peace treaty shows a general satisfaction with our new leadership in foreign affairs. The Wilson method of making peace and the Harding-Hughes method of making peace are in startling contrast. The senate has been freely consulted. The treaty conforms to a reputation passed by both houses of congress. Confidence and harmony have replaced executive compulsion. What Mr. Wilson said he would make impossible is being accomplished adroitly and rapidly — and with hardly a trace of partisan friction. — (New York Tribune.)

If Germany Stands Firm.
The German Government has weathered the Red danger. With the general support of the moderate parties and the specific and emphatic aid of the labor leaders it now faces a line-up of the reactionaries who dream of restoring the empire, even as the Legationists for a generation dreamed of upsetting the French Republic.
Pan-Germanism is as dead as the Stuart dynasty. It pleasantly planned the absolute domination of the continent. Many things the war did not settle, but it settled that design for good. In Bismarck's phrase, it is not worth the bones of one Pomeranian grenadier, and the German people are well aware of it. — (New York World.)

Less Loading Would Help.
Henry Ford is quoted as attributing the successful operation of his railroad to the fact that "we have ended the loading of locomotives, the loading of cars and the loading of men." It might well be, despite the Newberys, to send Henry to Congress yet and let him try his anti-loading system there. — (Louisville Courier-Journal.)

The Joke Eternal.
The Massachusetts commission on the necessities of life report that 24 cents worth of beans are sold for 15 cents in Boston, but no true Boston man would think of complaining about any price paid for beans. — (New York Herald.)

Tax Readjustment.

A Unanimous Choice.
The interested citizen doesn't care so much what tongue is designated as official for the disarmament conference as that it may speak the language of peace without hesitating or equivocating. — (Providence Journal.)

Ploughing the Main.
Stranger (to Farmer Tufts, crossing ocean for the first time) — Pretty rough going, isn't it? — Pretty rough going, isn't it? — "Wouldn't he be so rough is the Cap'n would only keep in the furrows." — (Boston Globe.)

His Choice.
"Fidelity will raise a monument to you for your services!" exclaimed the admiring friend.
"I hope not," protested Senator Borah. "I'd rather take my chances with the editorial writers than the art critics." — (Washington Star.)

Driving Home from Missouri.
On Monday, August 1, the Journal of Hopkins, Mo., states, F. A. Kenyon left that place with a buggy drawn by two ponies and carrying a tent and cooking outfit, left by the overland route with determination to drive to his home in Oneonta. A letter received yesterday at this office from Mr. Kenyon is dated at New London, Ohio, and states that he made the trip from Hopkins a distance of about 1,000 miles in exactly four weeks. His ponies, he notes, are as fat and sleek as moles, and he has not had an accident of any kind. He will remain for about two weeks at New London and then continue his journey to Oneonta, which he left about three years ago.

RAIN SPOILS NORWICH RACES

Thunder Storm Occurring After One Heat Makes Track Very Slippery and Several Horsemen Withdraw. Their Horses—May Daphne, Entered by Hall & Wheeler of Stamford Takes Heat and Second Money.

Norwich, Sept. 2.—Rain spoiled what promised to be some spirited racing on the closing day of the Chenango county fair, the track becoming so heavy and slippery after a hard thunder shower that several owners refused to allow their horses to remain in the races after the first heat. There were five starters in the first race, the 2:23 pace, 2:19 trot. May Daphne, entered by Wheeler and Bell of Stamford, won the first heat in 2:18 1/2, but was forced to second place in the next three heats by Bingo, owned by William Farley, of Cazenovia.

After the shower the track was so slippery, Mr. Gaines withdrew his mare from the race and Robert A., owned by T. D. Carter of this city, became the winner in three straight heats.

Barney Stops Runaways.
Chief Barney Dickinson of Richfield Springs received a telephone message last Friday night from Cooperstown asking him to stop and hold a young man and young woman who were running away and were then on route from Cooperstown to Richfield Springs. The chief instructed Officer Griffin to keep watch until he could get into his clothes and take up the vigil. The young people were said to be in a roadster and when a car tallying with the description came down Main street the chief bravely stood in front of it and forced a stop. The occupants of the automobile at first refused to unbutton the curtains and when Dickinson finally convinced them that he meant business he found the couple to be his daughter and son-in-law, from Binghamton. Someone had played a joke on dad. — (Mercury.)

JUNIOR EXTENSION GROWS

Otsego County Leads All Others in State—Increase More Than 27 Per Cent Over Figures for 1920.

A tabulation for the enrollment of boys and girls in junior projects recently made in the office of the state leader shows a total of 15,084 who are carrying on the work during the present year; an increase of more than 27 per cent over the enrollment for last year. The clothing project shows the greatest gain, followed by the poultry and potatoes. In a few projects, notably the calf and pig, there is a slight falling off, due in a large measure to the unsatisfactory financial results with these projects last year and the general unrest in the dairy industry.

Paid Leadership Important.
That paid county leadership is important may be seen from the fact that more than 70 per cent of the total enrollment is in the 16 counties having paid leaders, as against less than 30 per cent in the 28 other counties in which the work is carried on with voluntary leaders, including county agricultural and home demonstration agents, district superintendents of schools, teachers, and other local leaders.

Enrollment by Counties.
The following is the enrollment in Otsego and near-by counties:
Otsego, 1679; Chenango, 930; Oneida, 848; Montgomery, 849; Madison, 438; Schoharie, 274; Delaware, 238; Broome, 128.

Populous of Deer.
Although few realize it, there are in Catskill park, which includes portions of Sullivan, Ulster, Delaware, Orange and Greene counties more deer in proportion to the area than are to be found in any similar area in the Adirondack.
Last year nearly 5,000 hunters visited that park and killed over 2,000 deer.

HAPPY WEEK AT GOODYEAR.

Miss Poston Chaperones Jolly Party of Girls at Camp Winona.

Goodyear Lake, Sept. 2. Camp Winona at Goodyear Lake is a happy place this week. Riva Fullington, Elizabeth Halter, Clemens Buck, Dorothy Montague, Edith Jones and Frances Day are spending the week there chaperoned by Miss Poston of the Family Social Work association. The work of the camp is not arduous when divided among so many, and there is plenty of time for swimming and bathing. There have been no mishaps as the girls are careful in the water. Two have learned to swim and one can float on her back.

The girls had a fine bonfire one night and roasted marshmallows and sang all the songs they knew to an appreciative audience on the lake. The weather has been beautiful here and a hard storm Tuesday night. It did not disturb the sleep of the girls who had had a long, busy day.

A neighbor came in and brought the girls some cookies and fruit. Altogether they have had a jolly time and are planning for next year.

C. C. MILLER'S NEW STORE

Work Being Pushed so That New Place of Business Can be Opened Soon—Goods Already Moved From 32 Chestnut Street—New Confectionery Store to Open There.

Work on the new block being built by C. C. Miller at 327 Main street is being pushed rapidly towards completion. Already the merchandise has been moved from Mr. Miller's Chestnut street store to his new place of business. Mr. Miller said last night that if all goes well he will have the store properly finished off in two weeks and be in a position to resume retail business which in the meantime is suspended.

Carpenters are now working on the framework for the show-windows. The glass is already here and it is expected that work on enclosing the front can be completed early next week. Plastering on the first floor and in the office on the second floor, in the rear, is finished as are the metal ceilings in store and office.

The new store will have a modern and attractive appearance throughout. The floors are to be of tile with marble baseboards. The floor of the entrance will also be of tile and the bases of the show-windows of marble. Workmen will be here to lay the floors next Tuesday.

Although as stated in the foregoing the retail department of the business is suspended for the time being, Mr. Miller's men are busy as usual outside the work of plumbing and electrical installation.

The store at 32 Chestnut street just vacated by Mr. Miller is already undergoing alterations preparatory to the installation of new equipment for an ice cream, confectionery and fruit business. F. J. Brienza, for 14 years in the employ of John C. Lasharis has leased the store and with some fast work he plans to open a new business there on or about September 17. The store will be modern and attractive and with the popularity of the proprietor should command a large patronage.

TO DISCUSS EARLY CLOSING.

Special Meeting of Merchants' Association This Morning.

At 9:30 o'clock this morning there will be a special meeting of the Merchants' association at the Chamber of Commerce office for the purpose of considering the proposal of some of the members to continue closing of the stores at 5 o'clock. Many of the merchants hope that some agreement can be made so that all of the stores will close at the same time. Since Thursday, September 2, when the summer agreement ended some of the stores have continued closing at 5 o'clock and others have kept their doors open until 6. Some of the merchants realize that such a condition is confusing to purchasers and they hope to arrive at an agreement which will apply to all.

Early in the week the proprietors of markets and grocery stores agreed to continue during September the plan they adopted for the summer of closing their places of business Thursday afternoons.

GOLF ACTIVITIES.

Every Wednesday, Will Be Observed as Ladies' Day at Country Club.

Golf is gaining in popularity among the lady members of the Country club and some good players have developed. It has been decided to observe every Wednesday commencing Sept. 7 as Ladies' day. Interesting events will take place, in which every lady golfer is requested to take part. Arrangements will be made by which each contestant will stand an equal chance of winning prizes, which will be offered for each occasion.

September 15 and 16 have been designated for the qualifying rounds for the ladies championship. Nine holes will be played.

As a special feature for Labor day, Monday, September 5, mixed four-somes are announced. All members of the club are requested to enter. Prizes will be offered.

The match between the Oneonta and Binghamton Country club teams, announced for today in Binghamton, has been cancelled.

Uncle Sam Getting Poor.

Yes, and he's alarmed. Do you know, think or care a darn that for 33 years I've had 12 good, able, reliable and unselfish old dads who have stood on guard, watched over and kept inexperienced men, women and kids from going up fool hill and tumbling over the top? Do you realize that I've given them a chance to safely chuck away a measly 35 cents each day, place with me monthly and have 2000 bucks handed back to each of them and that I have, safely helped them to get a good education and have 100 dollars worth of homes and farms, by making rent money pay for them? I'll bet a box of cigars against a big pippin apple that you've given more attention to the auto craze, bobbed hair, short skirts, etc., etc., than you have given to my grand work, which is on a par with that done by churches and schools. Whoop-ee! start up the jazz music and go on with the shimmy dance.

I'm now safely rolling up four million more, so that according to Uncle Sam's records we can pass the hat for 80 out of every 100 of you later and pay larger taxes to care for you. Is it any wonder that Uncle Sam is scared, pats me on the back and urges me to wake you up? I'm the safe and sane Oneonta Building and Loan association. adv. 11

RACE PROGRAM ONEONTA FAIR

Thousands Dollars in Purse Each Day of Exhibition—Thrilling Speed Contests Already Assured.

One of the greatest features of the Central New York fair, which opens on Monday, September 19, and continues until Friday, September 23, will be the races of which there will be two each day, beginning on Tuesday. The purse for each of the two races is $500—being $1,000 for each day, $4,000 for the four exhibition days of the fair. These are larger purses than are offered by any fair in this section, and this year as always a large entry list is assured. Though the entries do not close in ten days, already many have been received and the inquiries, and requests for entry blanks assure large fields in every contest. There is no clean, wholesome sport which is more thoroughly enjoyed, and there is assurance that there will be excellent races in every class. The following are the races for each day:

Tuesday, Sept. 20—State Day.

Class No. 1—24 trot . . . $300
Class No. 2—24 pace and 24 trot . . . $500

Wednesday, Sept. 21—Kingston Day.

Class No. 4—24 trot and 24 trot . . . $500
Class No. 4—24 pace and 24 trot . . . $500

Thursday, Sept. 22—Scranton, Carbon, Schoharie and Schenectady Day.

Class No. 5—14 trot . . . $500
Class No. 6—24 pace and 24 trot . . . $500

Friday, Sept. 23—Albany and Binghamton Day.

Class No. 7—24 trot . . . $500
Class No. 8—Free for all . . . $500

There are many other excellent features every day of the fair, including the roof-garden and other special attractions, the floral parade on Thursday, and the floral parade and prize-winning cattle and horse parade on the last day. It used to be said that the Oneonta fair gave a dollar's worth for 25 cents. Now it gives two dollars' worth, and the price of admission is still 25 cents.

Corn Roast at Cliffside.

There will be a corn roast at the grove at Cliffside on Labor day for the members of the Goodyear Lake association, and after the roast the program of work by the committees for the ensuing year will be given out by the chairman. Members are requested to bring lunch, corn will be furnished. The hour of the roast is six o'clock Monday evening.

Legion Members Attention!

There will be no special car to the convention at Richfield Monday, as planned. It will be necessary for those contemplating going by trolley to leave on the regular car which departs at 9:10 a. m.

Special on Peaches—Today, also fresh Albany cantaloupes, tomatoes and new, crisp cauliflower. Good goods and fair prices. A. Angelillo, 220 Main street. adv. 11

REPORT OF RED CROSS NURSE

Miss Robertson Makes Arrangements to Visit Sick Policy Holders of Metropolitan Insurance Company.

One of the many important things accomplished in August by Miss Katharine M. Robertson, the city Red Cross nurse, was the closing of an agreement with the Metropolitan Life Insurance company to visit their policy holders in case they are ill. For this service of the nurse the Red Cross will receive a definite sum, so that in making the visits the nurse will be helping her organization financially as well as carrying on its work among those who are disabled. Miss Robertson hopes to make similar arrangements with some of the industrial concerns of the city. This arrangement has been used with a great deal of success in many places.

In August Miss Robertson cared for 14 cases, of which 10 were dismissed during the month. She paid $1 nursing visits and of this number 45 were in the interests of infant welfare. Twenty-eight children were brought to the clinics, which were held during each week in the month.

Merchants' Association

Special meeting of the Merchants' association this morning at 9:30 to consider continuing of 5 o'clock closing. By order of the president, Louis B. Capron, secretary.

Special—Fresh dressed chickens 40 cents per pound. Todd's Cash Market. Phone 19. adv. 11

Many cases of "nerves" or irritability come through eye-tiredness, and are easily relieved through proper glasses.

Perhaps those frequent headaches are only the result of eye strain. You can quickly find out through proper glasses.

Your children's eyes need watching. A very casual examination will determine whether they need the help of glasses.

RECALLING THE OLD DAYS

Supervisors and County Officials, Present and Ex., Meet in Cooperstown.
The annual dinner and reunion of supervisors and county officials of Otsego county, which for a goodly number of years has been a much-anticipated summer event, was held yesterday at the New Fenimore hotel in Cooperstown. There was a good attendance, about 100 former and present officials, many of them accompanied by members of their families and other guests, sitting down at 2 o'clock to a dinner which was unanimously acclaimed as excellent in quality, faultlessly served and reasonable in price—a dinner which it is afforded little profit to the management, as was probably the case, was the source of satisfaction in the universal expression of gratification which was heard. Prior to the dinner, and following it, the members and their guests enjoyed a social hour or more in which there were recalled many events in the political history of the county, and many anecdotes of an earlier as well as of the present day. It was, in fact, a genuine get-together day, in which the community spirit which nowadays is much talked about, was clearly in evidence. Every part of the county was represented, and everybody was delighted with the day, the banquet and the preceding and subsequent social hours.

CHARLES D. KEELER MARRIED.

Popular Star Employee Weds Miss Gladys Hall of Sidney.

Last evening, at 7 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hall, in Sidney, Charles D. Keeler, son of Editor and Mrs. V. D. Keeler of the Sidney Enterprise and himself a valued linotype operator at The Star office, was united in marriage with Miss Gladys S. Hall. The ceremony was performed by Rev. I. J. Smith, a retired clergyman of the Methodist church residing in Sidney. Only the immediate relatives of the bride and groom were present and the couple were unattended.

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served and later Mr. and Mrs. Keeler departed by motor car for a short honeymoon trip, returning from which Mr. Keeler will resume his duties at The Star office, wherein he is popular with all his associates and where his services are prized. His bride is an accomplished young woman of Sidney and both are deservedly held in high esteem there. The heartiest congratulations and best wishes of the entire editorial, business and mechanical staff of The Star are extended.
